Exciting Man Hunt in a Crowded Jersey City Street.

The Fugitive Caught as He Tried to Get Through a Fence.

Passengers hurrying for the 11.45 boat on the Pennsylvania Railroad ferry from this city to New York this morning were this city to New York this morning were startled by hearing shouts of "Stop thief!" and a pistol shot, and saw a young man wearing a light suit of clothes and a black derby hat running young man wearing a light suit of clothes and a black derby hat running up Montgomery street with a crowd following him.

At the corner of Montgomery and Green streets the young man tried to jump through a hole in the fence leading into the yards of the railroad. As he did so, a detective who was at the head of the crowd fired his revolver. The bullet passed through the leg of the man's trousers, but did not cut the fiesh. It brought him to a step, however.

The detective snapped the handcuffs on him, and with the other man, who was led up by a second detective, was taken to Police Headquarters and charged with larceny.

The men were Lewis Nevin and Joseph Craig. Capt. J. Donovan, of the schooner Mary J. Chadwick, claimed that they stole three suits of clothes, a watch and chain and a small sum of money from his boat yesterday. The men were employed on the schooner.

The captain came to Jersey City this morning to report the robbery and saw the men on Exchange Place. He chased them and a crowd joined in. Detective Pearson and McBride also took a hand in the game. Nevin stopepd running, but Craig tried to get through the fence and was shot at. The atolem property was found in a satchel dropped by Craig.
